INTEROFFICE MEMORANDUM

TO: President Brian D. Cecola
Members of the Board of Trustees

FROM: Nikki Panos, Village Clerk

DATE: October 21, 2025

SUBJECT: Biography as submitted by Marsha McClary, nominee to fill the unexpired term of Trustee Darby Hills, whose resignation created a vacancy in the Office of Village Trustee

Marsha McClary, MBA, brings to her role as Trustee a lasting commitment to the Barrington area. She grew up locally, attending St. Anne's School and Barrington High School, and has lived in Barrington Hills with her family for the past ten years, deepening her appreciation for the community's distinct character and beauty.

Marsha earned her Master of Business Administration from the Kellogg School of Management at Northwestern University and a bachelor's degree in Accounting and Computer Information Systems from Indiana University's Kelley School of Business. Throughout her career, she has held executive roles directing strategy, operations, finance, and stakeholder engagement in entrepreneurial companies, as well as a 20-year tenure with a Fortune Global 500 pharmaceutical corporation. Her executive experience has established her reputation for sound governance, operational rigor, and collaborative leadership.

Alongside her career, Marsha has been deeply involved in charitable and civic service. She has served on the board of Feed My Starving Children, leads a Moms for Liberty chapter, mentors youth in leadership and STEM, and has advised stewardship ministry initiatives. In these roles, she puts into practice values of integrity, service, and compassion.

As Trustee, she remains committed to protecting the natural beauty and tranquility that define Barrington Hills.
